

What's going to change?

On the post-it notes, write or draw some things that will be different between your primary school and your secondary school..
We've helped you out with the first one. If you're not able to print this sheet then a you could use a plain piece of paper as your own "graffiti wall" to note all the things that might be different for you.

